

Barden Residents' Association - Privacy Policy

We hold details of our members' names, addresses, email addresses and telephone numbers, how much they have paid in subs each year, and the date(s) that the payments were made. We do not hold all this information for every member.

Those who attend Barden Residents Association meetings are given the option to add their email address to the sign in sheet if they wish to receive the minutes of the meeting. By giving this email they also consent to receiving occasional news.

We use this information to send out minutes from our meetings and occasionally news about the activities of the association. You can unsubscribe at any time by contacting the secretary.

The data controller is the secretary who can be contacted at the email address below. The data is stored on one or more computers used by the secretary. You can also contact us via our closed Facebook group or by direct messaging our Twitter account @BardenResidents .

This information is not shared with any other organisation or third party.

If you wish to see the data we hold about you, or have it changed or deleted, please ask us. We will retain this data indefinitely, unless asked to delete it.

The lawful basis (as defined by the General Data Protection Regulation) for processing personal data is "consent". You have the right to withdraw consent at any time, in which case data relating to your membership will be deleted.

You have the right to lodge a complaint with the British Information Commissioner's Office (ICO), and other rights.

The provision of personal data to us is not part of a statutory or contractual requirement or obligation. The consequence of failing to provide the personal data is that you will not receive news and information from us.

Version 1.

24th May 2018.
